Program Learning Outcomes

The program follows the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) Program Recognition Standards: Building Level (2018). The standards represent the critical content knowledge and educational leadership skills in seven common core areas required of beginning educational leaders in a school building environment. These NELP standards serve as the Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs). In addition to mastery of the PLOs, students are required to complete an internship in school settings that provide sustained opportunities to synthesize and apply the knowledge and skills identified in the PLOs.
